TV delivers total war
And it's licking your bloody sore
It shows you my name of evil
And gives you heroes to adore

You are hard as steel
Yes, like god you feel
By erasing the sin
You carry deep within

Eat me alive - But I won't stop breathing
Eat me alive - But I'll get renewed
Eat me alive - And I am everlasting
Eat me alive - To become a perfect part of you

After we've lost everything
We are free to do anything
You erased our lives
Now we judge your goddamned lies

We bring the chaos
We destroy the order
We rule that world
Without any borders

Have you never known the truth?
Have you never know
That all I am is you?
