"Payday"

All along I was just faking it.
And i'd do whatever just to be making it.
All along I was just eating shit.
And i'd do whatever just so I could make a hit.
I'm a slave because it isn't like me.
To be myself and live without a care.
My day is payday. Will they ever learn from me.
All along I was their little bitch.
And i'd do whatever just so I could be the rich.
I'm as plastic as they ever come.
But so are credit cards and they are worth more than some.
I'd sell my soul for a million one.
It's better than just living for the fun.
Cuz i'll be their fortunate son.
And that's when I know i've won.
