I'm safer than a kiss from an innocent infant in makeup tied up to a rule that's going up you know i don't exist I'm the anchor of your anger when I'm on time until my time is going up i held a flame to my own heart
to be the perfect one now I'm ready for the world
I'm bleeding through your wrist i missed a thousand of your pretty pictures I'm loved until my time is going up
I held a flame to my own heart
To be the perfect one
Now Im ready for the world
I held a flame to my own heart
To be the perfect one
Now Im ready for the world
Im ready for the world
