Now tell me how we spoil the fun
and why our love is upside down.
I want you
I need you.

A silent movie
empty glasses on the table-top.
I stare the ceiling
can you imagine how I feel?
I dream forever looking at this photograph

But I can't lose you
I'll write a letter from my heart.
Now tell me how we spoil the fun
oh

why our love is upside down.
I want you
I need you.

A simple story of two lovers living far apart

But I can wait now 'cause my love belong to you.
I dream forever looking at this photograph

And I won't lose you
I'll write a letter from my heart.
I need you.

This simple story of two lovers now so far apart

But I can't lose you
I'll write a letter from my heart.
I'll write a letter from my heart.
I'll write a letter from my heart.
