I try so hard to be the man and play the part
But things just ain't as they seem
I've try to look so hard you see
Then spoke to each respectively
The answer was oh so clear

They said, "Nothin's easy to have or to hold. The world will always getcha down"

The need to shout the urge to scream
To lash out from inside me
They said, "Son, You'll work these things out"
"Just look inside that's where you start.
Close your eyes and trust your heart
The answer is never too far"

Then they said, "Nothin's easy to have or to hold. The world will always get you down."

They said, "Nothin's easy to have or to hold. The world will always get you down."

Said stay to the path
Follow your heart
Stay to the path
No matter how far
It's what's inside that makes you who you are.

Said stay to the path
Follow your heart
Stay to the path
No matter how far
It's what's inside that makes you who you are.

Then they said, "Nothin's easy to have or to hold. The world will always get you down."
