So many days since I saw your face
God knows how many times
I've been tryin' not to call you
You've been around the world, up to the moon
Always on the run, so young and restless

She was long gone when she was close to me
Oh, I just had to let her go for now, just let her leave

Now the road is long and she's far away
Don't have a boat, no I can't go by train
Ooh, baby, I'm coming anyway

I'll build a paper plane so I can fly
Over the skyline
I know it sounds insane but I will try
Cause wherever you are
Yeah, wherever ever I'll risk it for ya

And on my paper plane yeah I will fly
Over the skyline
And if it's gonna rain then I could die
But wherever you are
(Wherever you are)
Yeah, wherever ever I'll risk it for ya

How d'ya feel?
Tell me where do you stand
Where do you call home
Girl, I need to know

Cause in my heart there is a hole
That only you can fill
So I'm coming for ya

She was long gone when she was close to me

Oh, I just had to let her go for now, just let her leave

Now the road is long and she's far away
Don't have a boat, no I can't go by train
Ooh, baby, I'm coming anyway

And on my paper plane yeah I will fly
Over the skyline
And if it's gonna rain then I could die
But wherever you are
(Wherever you are)
Yeah, wherever ever I'll risk it for ya

Ooo-ooo-oooh...

I know I'll find ya
My heart belongs to ya
Then this won't hurt no more
No, this won't hurt

I'll build a paper plane so I can fly
Over the skyline

And on my paper plane yeah I will fly
Over the skyline
And if it's gonna rain then I could die
But wherever you are
(Wherever you are)
Yeah, wherever ever I'll risk it for ya

I know I'll find ya
My heart belongs to ya
Then this won't hurt no more
No, this won't hurt no more
