Music by Barry Mann and James Horner

Lyric by Cynthia Weil

Deep in the night the winds blow cold
And in a heartbeat the fear takes hold
Deep in the storm there's a place that's soft and still Where the road waits to be taken if you only will
The voices inside you can lead your soul astray
Believe in what you dream
Don't turn away, don't you turn away

(Chorus)

Reach for the light, you might touch the sky
Stand on the mountaintop and see yourself flying
Reach for the light to capture a star
Come out of the darkness and find out who you are

Somewhere in time the truth shines through
And the spirit knows what it has to do
Somewhere in you there's a power with no name
It can rise to meet the moment and burn like a flame
And you can be stronger than any fear you know
Hold on to what you see
Don't let it go, don't you let it go

(Chorus)

Now there's no turning back when your destiny is calling
Listen to the thunder roll and let your heart break free

Reach for the light...

Reach for the light, you might touch the sky
Stand on the mountaintop and see yourself flying
Reach for the light to capture a star
Come out of the darkness and find out who you...

Reach for the light, you might touch the sky
Stand on the mountaintop and see yourself flying
Reach for the light to capture a star

Come out of the darkness and find out who you are

Yes, reach for the light
