I don't see how another day is gonna make us change our minds
So why don't we go separate ways and save us a bit of time
We can't go on trying living behind this worn out and be disguise
I don't want to try talking it out
Yeah I don't need another fight
It just won't work when

All I want is a little peace and quiet
All I want is a little peace and quiet

I just don't wanna live this way 'cause lately we're up all night
I can't speak free when you're in my face, and I don't like to be unkind
You constantly try and turn it around, when clearly it's black and white Something's gone and now I'm feeling down and I've been here a million times
It just won't work when

All I want is a little peace and quiet
All I want is a little peace and quiet

We can't go on trying living behind this worn out and be
disguise
I don't want to try talking it out
Yeah I don't need another fight
It just won't work when

All I want is a little peace and quiet
All I want is a little peace and quiet

It's been so long since I had a lover Here I stand alone with out another Now I'm alone
