One just one and then I'll go Though it's on the cards that an argument is imminent I know
But its not like I'll get carried home
It's just that I believe that she don't think I think of her when I'm on my own so

Don't think that I don't need
Our nights with the TV
You're so dear to me but sometimes I like to lose control

Just one more I promise then I'll go Now I don't want a scene and have you screaming down the phone
You should know the only one I know
That will make me laugh with little things they do is you
And only you alone so

Don't think that I might be Thinking that I might leave
You're so dear to me but sometimes I like to lose
control

Maybe Saturday we'll go out and do something like Til that day arrives you should knw you're mine

Don't think that I don't need
Our nights with the TV
You're so dear to me but sometimes I like it on my own

One thing I know, when I go my heart stays at home
