Why am I the weird guy
Who always sits alone
Why do I care
When no one calls me on the phone
I've grown complacent, no one knows I have feelings too
And I feel this way especially when Iâ'm with you

You make me feel alone
You make me feel like a long distance phone call
You make me feel alone when Iâ'm with you
You make me feel alone
I could try to make you recognize
That my pleading eyes ain't asking for that much Theyâ're asking can I touch you

You make me feel alone when Iâ'm with you
You make me feel alone when Iâ'm with you

Well, even wallflowers need some water
And some tender care
Even wallflowers need some water
And some tender care
