"Long Distance Phone Call"

Visit "Long Distance Phone Call" on MotoLyrics.com

Oh why am I the weird guy
Who always sits alone
Oh why do I care
No one calls on the goddamn phone

Well I've grown complacent
When no one knows I have feelings too
And I feel this way especially when I'm with you

You make me feel alone
You make me feel like a long distance phone call
You make me feel alone
Whenever I'm with you you make me feel alone

Well I could surely try to make you recognize That these poor pleading eyes
Ain't asking that much
They're asking can I touch you

You make me feel alone, when I'm with you
You make me feel alone, when I'm with you
You make me feel alone, when I'm with you
You make me feel alone

Well even wallflowers need some water and some tender care
Well even wallflowers need some water and some
tender care
Well even wallflowers need some water and some
tender care
Well even wallflowers need some water and some
tender care
Won't you care for me or am I too weird?
