Waiting for an energy
Just to tell me that it's over
Words are pointless when you stare at me like that Take deep breaths and turn your back
Lay the blame on my name as i lay a girl in the same place you used to lose your breath
Can you feel it like i felt it?

I dont feel it quite like i used to Numb
Love is a four letter word for disappointment

Drink myself into a new person
These days of this feeling are numbered
Sleep
Wake up
Last night i left a dollar under water
Too much of a dreamer
At least i've still got hope she left some of her clothes down on the floor

2 more months of no more Sun
Finding myself without a pretty little name after an "&"
Sign
I'm better off without you

Enjoy your coffee baby cause life just ain't that sweet without me
