"Capture The Moment"

Savour the moment as you take your first breath of the day.

Capture that moment with no thoughts to intrude in your way.

Go with the feeling; don't be scared to strike out on your own.

All your spells and your potions will protect you from feeling alone.

All you aspire to, all will be there for you.

The illusion of freedom is what gets us through the night.

Rebirth and renewal are the lessons of all that's right.

Stay in that sweet spot, let the fear and the loathing slide by.

Capture the moment as you ready yourself to fly
