Doctor can you help me please I'm laying on the floor
I need a glass of something like you gave me once before I'll send my little messenger he'll bring the money to you
He'll slowly make his way back home there'll be no
horror show today
My friends and me we'll be up and get away

If I fill your every need you won't feel so empty In my web I'll bet your life you're dead before you're thirty

Doctor can you help me please, I trust you like my mum
I know that you won't stop me turning all the whole world on
You know that I'll always come to you when everything goes wrong
You pick me up, don't let me go down to the horror show today
My friend's and me we'll be up and get away

If I fill your every need, baby you won't feel so empty
In my web I'll bet your life you're dead before you're
thirty

Doctor can you help me please I'm laying on the floor
I need a glass of something like you gave me once
I'll send my little messenger he'll bring the money to
you
He'll slowly make his way back home there'll be no
horror show today
My friend's and me we'll be up and get away

In my web I'll bet your life you're dead before you're
thirty

In my web I'll bet your life you're dead before you're
thirty
