The wind blows cold, the rain begins to fall,
And still my heart burns inside.
The winter is near, the leaves begin to fall,
But you're not there by my side.
Tumbling nights, sweat within my bed,
My dreams are just nightmares that fight within my
head.
I've got to go on, but how will I survive?
My love for you is strong even though you're not alive.
I walk the beach, your memory's crushed by waves.
Did you know how many nights I've cried?
Memory screams like the cold cuts to the skin,
And the wind disguises my tears.
Tumbling nights, sweat within my bed,
My dreams are just nightmares that fight within my
head.
I've got to go on, how will I survive?
My love for you is strong, even though you're not alive.
I still love you so,
But I can't let you go.
I still love you.
