Remember the bar garden
Glass filled with beer
Nothing to lose only good times to gain
A friend to help along
When the words wouldn't come

Sing out the song, brother
Sing it loud and clear
Then we'll laugh together
Like the old days

The rusty guitar, it's sound filled the air
Out of tune choruses that didn't sound quite there
How about the joker?
He got his laugh and then he said

"Sing out the song, brother
Sing it loud and clear
Then we'll laugh together
Like the old days"

The way the things are now, it's not the same anymore
And I sometimes wish that we could all
Sit down together
Sing it all again, again

Remember the bar garden glass
Filled with beer,
Nothing to lose only good times to gain
A friend to help along
When the words wouldn't come

Sing out the song, brother
Sing it loud and clear
Then we'll laugh together
Like the old days, old days
