I'm leavin' to search for something new
Leavin' everything I ever knew
A hundred years in the sunshine
Hasn't taught me all there is to know

A valley, we will gather there
Helpless in our surrender
Tomorrow the plow becomes the sword
Make us stronger in our danger

Time will pass away, time will guard our secret
I'll return again, to fight another day

I'll have to be a warrior
A slave I couldn't be
A soldier and a conqueror
Fighting to be free

I'll have to be a warrior
A slave I couldn't be
A soldier and a conqueror
Fighting to be free

I'll have to be a warrior
A slave I couldn't be
A soldier and a conqueror
Fighting to be free

I'll have to be a warrior
A slave I couldn't be
A soldier and a conqueror
Fighting to be free
