Suspicion came from around the bend
And it tapped me on the shoulder
I heed your warning but I'm sorry friend
This is exactly what I want
Walking in knowingly I have got to get a hold of me
This party might be out of my league
Suspicion stabbed me in the back again
I poured my heart out and I started to leave

And all the sudden I can't let it go
I say we should have gone to Mexico
You've got love like a fire - though I can't put you out,
I can't stand and admire it
'Cause if I'm with you than I want to be
So sweetheart take a little drive with me
We'll get lost in the sun, oh the night's just begun
Down in beautiful Mexico

My feels caught on a spiderweb
As I was walking out and into the desert
I left my heart but somehow kept my head
And I've been acting like I don't even care
But with a drink or two,
Like the one I never had with you
I'm slurring all the things that you are Thinking about what we could have been
And no, I never even make it to the car

And all the sudden I can't let you go
I say we should have gone to Mexico
You've got love like a fire - though I can't put you out,
I can't stand and admire it
'Cause if I'm with you than I want to be
So sweetheart take a little drive with me
We'll get lost in the sun, oh the night's just begun
Down in beautiful Mexico

And all the sudden I can't let you go
I say we should have gone to Mexico
You've got love like a fire- though I can't put you out,
I can't stand and admire it

'Cause if I'm with you than I want to be
So sweetheart take a little drive with me
We'll get lost in the sun, oh the night's just begun
Down in beautiful Mexico
