you got to be better than everyone I know your always putting on some stupid show baracated lies so you can hide behind i can see through you , i can see it all chorus: you got the world wrapped around your little finger

so you think, so you wish you did (REPEAT 1) there is nothing in this world you haven't done exciting stories told , you go and steal the show i can't compete with you who cares what you do

chorus

someday it will all catch up to you and you will see you'll never be better than me never, you'll never be better than me
