Man:
Bad news sir?

Robert:
Bad news?
You have just brought me the most
Superlatively good new
Since the dove brought the first green leaf to Noah.

Man:
Why?
What's that
Mr. Browning sir?

Robert:
She's invited me to tea.

Man:
That's nice.

Robert:
Nice?
Man the heavens have opened.
Tell.
The.
Sky.
I carry the moon in my pocket
Down came the moon like a rocket
And plummeted into my pocket.
the morning sun
Musthav' forgotten to lock it
I carry the moon in my pocket
And the lining is shining the stars.
Depressed was I
When suddenly out of the blue came
Giddening, crescent and new came
A luminous letter from you came
Now hope soars high
And nothing can possibly stop it
I carry the moon in my pocket
And my jacket is Venus and Mars.

Trumpets ring out
Come corasters sing out!
Evry' bold bright
Ballad and flag be unfurled
The moon and I
Are treading a heavenly highway
So anyone traveling my way
All's right with the world.
I carry the moon the magical moon
A marvelous moon in my pocket
A magical moon
A mellifluous tune
All's right with the world!

All:
You carry the moon
The magical moon
A marvelous moon in you pocket
A magical moon
A catch of a tune
And all's right with the world.
Tell the sky
You carry the moon in you pocket
Down came the moon
Like a rocket
And plummeted into you rocket
The morning sun
Muasthav' forgotten to lock it
You carry the moon in your pocket
And the lining is shining the stars.
Lightning
Thunder
The Earth is a wonder

Robert:
See where evry' valley and hill
Is dew pearled

All:
The Milky Way
Has added a carpet of glory
The finishing touch to the story
Is all right with the world.

Robert:
The finishing touch
The delicate touch
The twist in the midst of the story

All:
The alternate touch is certainly such

That all's right with the world.
And crescendo
Come office so blend
Oh!
Let you clearing
Feels message be heard.
Proclaim to all
The moon is as light as a feather
When you and your love are together
All's right with the world!
The moon is as light
The moon is as light
The moon is as feather
Is comes from above
With it's symbol of love

Robert:
It comes from above
With it's message of love

All:
It comes from above
And when you're in love
All's right
All's right
All's right with the world

Robert:
All's right with the world

Congregation:
All's right with the world.
