We've been dreaming for so long
Careless wisdom comes our way
And before he his time passed
Never failing until the end

We'll always, will you always
See the truth when it stares you in the face?
We'll never, will you never
See the love in having faith

If you want to belong
And never see you're facing
To feel the sorrow
And never see the truth
It's too long to belong
And never see your face
And never to be strong

We've been searching for so long
Careless whispers lead our way
And before he his time passed
Never failing until the end

Will you always, will you always
See the truth when it stares in you face?
We'll never, we'll never
See the love in having goodbyes

If you want to belong
And never see you're face
To feel the sorrow
And never see the truth
It's too long to belong
And never see your face
And never to be strong

Jillian?
The dream has ended long ago
We tell our stories and endless glory found in here

We'll always be here, for ever and ever found in here.

We'll always be here

If you want to belong
And never see you're facing
To feel the sorrow
And never see the truth
It's too long to belong
And never see your face
And never to be strong.
