Remember when we used to shout out loud Remember when we always felt so proud remember when we didn't need to go out Remember the girls and the way they smelled Remember how we'd never kiss and tell Remember staying up past twelve

Now all we do is wonder
All we do is wonder
why cant we just stay
for another summer
times just fades away cloud we have just one more day

Remember how we always played the fool hanging out and skipping school you know we didnt care about the rules remember your girl and the way she smelled remember the first time you took it out we thought we knew what it was all about

now all we do is wonder

for another summer
time just fades away
could we have just one more day we'd be better of that way now it feels like we skipped the fall and were frozen to the bone could we really just let the cold night take us over remember you girl and the way she smelled remember the first time you took it out we never knew what it was all about no all we do is wonder

all we do is wonder

for another summer
could we have just one more

for one more summer day
could we have another day we'd be better off that way
