It's too late, the sky's performing
We must have missed our warning signs that day And there's so much that we've no longer got As my eyes fall down across your face

I remember songs that brought us in the corner of your room
You held too close for both of us til nothing touched could move

I know, it doesn't silence anyone
So what could anyone say There's been but two meanings in our lives
What you want and what I can't, can't hide

The fallen cry, the empty driveway lights do take me
home
You held too close for both of us Till nothing said was known Because i know a place i'm going to, like nowhere that you've been
Goodnight, goodnight

The fallen cry, the empty driveway lights don't take me
home
You held too close for both of us till nothing said was known
I remeber songs that brought us in the corner of your
You held too close for both of us till nothing said was
known

The time is over goodnight Leaving us the way I thought it might Cause I know a place I'm going to like nowhere that you've been
Goodnight, goodnight
