Yes, I know I'm late gettin' home tonight
Can supper wait, I guess I've lost my appetite
Yeah you can fix me a drink, oh anything's okay
Oh, by the way I met a friend of yours today

I was workin' on the other side of town
And comin' home I thought I'd stop and have a round
And in this bar I heard someone speak your name
And that's how I met a friend of yours today

I listened for awhile and I could tell
That that stranger there he knew you much too well
And I introduced myself and you should have seen his face
Oh what a shem I met a friend of yours today

Please don't cry woman 'cause it's much too late for tears
Yeah, I'm sorry too 'cause it hurts after all these years'
And ain't it sad a love lik ours should end this way
And all because I met a friend of yours today
