She said I don't recall
Seeing you around here
You must be new to this town
Said I'm just passing thru but
Girl from the looks of you
I could see me settlin' down

Then se smiled and said the invitation's open
'Cause you look like just what I've been waiting on
So I said why don't we take
This matter somewhere else
And get to know this feeling that's so strong
Lead on

She said I had a love once
But he just up and left me
I said I bet it broke your heart
I had a love once too
But I acted like a fool
Oh what I'd give to be back in her arms

Then she smiled and said the invitation's open
'Cause you look like just what I've been waiting on
So I said why don't we take
This matter somewhere else
And pick up right where everything went wrong
Lead on
