now let's take it back to january an overflowing heart and empty wallet scene some wheels and a guitar yeah they think we're crazy driving on the ways of the high and free
and so we just hold on i remember rolling through some state in a hotel scene with pennies to my name i remember thinking i can't sleep but she's loving me

just hold on and here with you, under these colors i'll stay with you, there is no other we share a name, we share a wonder and on the road ahead we'll keep going further and all the struggles and all the honorable mentions that pave our history well all of my attention is here surrounding you i forget all that has used me, bruised me, rolling on through

and here with you, under these colors

the rest is right, the rest is wrong the rest will come when it comes along rest will find us, we belong here

and on the road ahead we'll keep going further [x2]

the rest is right, the rest is wrong
