I started to feel, while
I was walking down the street
Yes I did, and I started
Thinking about my destiny
And how maybe, maybe
Just some day I could repay
All the times you sang

All of your warm colors
Have painted on my days
And all of the tragic tears
You took off of my face
Cause I've fallen off of these
Train tracks and nearly seen my death
And I stabbed it with
The sum of that to live

This will be my destiny
You will be my sun and I will see
So don't gather up your hands
At me and what I have to tell
I will bet these words will find you well

I know, I know when
I see it I will know
Its home that I'll go
When its my turn to clock out
It's almost like dreaming
It's something I can't explain
That it's almost hard to think or say
To try to be a different way

This will be my destiny
You will be my sun and I will see
So don't gather up your hands
At me and what I have to tell
I will bet these words will find you well

So you, do you know what a mess you do
I assume that I thinking yes I do
Well I just hope and pray

That you change that soon
And I would hope
And pray if I were you , Ohh...
If I were you, If I were you
If I were you, If I were you
I'd be asking every Single person I knew
Just to say a prayer for me
Cause I will most
Assuredly die this century
And in distemper in this Life that I will leave
I hope to God that I live for you
And not for me, whoa...

Can you hear me
Can you hear me now
Is this thing on?
Can you hear me
Cause I am speaking
Loud and clear!
