Slide your feet, Create the shock
Touch another, Watch it pop
Live a little, Live a lot
And show me everything you've got

Oh, cause it takes some time
And just a little bit of good
Reality won't hurt for longer than it should
Just talkin' 'bout talking about pain that is there
Face the fact, don't act like you don't care

Cause you gotta stop and show it
Just so I know you know it
Maybe just a little bit
Oh, come on admit it right now
Cause I know that it
Won't be over til it's gone,
So let it be gone

And show me
Everything you've got
I know you're scared
But let your walls destruct
You gotta take that step
And your heart
Just let it pour out

Now I know it's hard
To be somethin'
That you don't think you are
But it's hard for me
To even try to understand
Why you are beating your own heart
Cause you gotta try
Just try to be honest
And I'll be honest
All these things that I say
And now listen clear
Whether brave or you're modest

I'm here, don't hold back
Don't hesitate, don't disappear
(Don't disappear)

And show me
Everything you've got
I know you're scared
But let your walls destruct
You gotta take that step
And your heart
Just let it pour out

And show me
Everything you've got
I know you're scared
But it's time for you to start
Just let it make sound

So hey, just let it pour out
And don't let your past
Begin to let you down
Just sing it out
And as it will hurt
It will be healed and found
Cause it's normal that
Emotional pasts
Can spawn emotionalness dads,
Mothers, and nation's flags
So show your face
No don't be afraid
To show your face

After all these things I've learned
Bad things I do and don't deserve
Can easily just shape my life
And shape the way I start to die

No, cause it's up to me
If I dwell much longer than I should
And I'll hold my tears for years
Thinkin' it's doing me good
So let's start right now
And just make a vow
You'll let your heart
Just sing it out (just sing it out)

And show me

Everything you've got
I know you're scared
But let your walls destruct
Just let it pour out

And show me
I know you're scared
But it's time for you to start

Yeah, Oh, Uh, whoa, oh no
Alright, Here we go
Here we go, ohhh... (Ahhh!)
