so long before, you stood so long at my door abundantly you have asked, have you received is this everything that you've hoped for is this everything you dreamed well i'm not sure, if i don't really mean it life and history repeated i will see visions vividly of how everything will end the same is this everything that you've hoped for is that everything you've dreamed well i want it to be if the real point is seen

so, in this hour
everything i do will be all for this moment everything's for you
my heart is open and willing so take it get up get up get up so much feeling oh my soul is singing and everybody feels the same

is this everything you've dreamed well i think it is if the real point is seen

everything's for you

stay in place when there so many things to say i wanna help and not just hesitate but i just don't but i just don't so please take my life and use it i'm ready
