Oh girl these nights are dull
I wish that I could spend them with you,
I'm looking at this wall repeating girl I love you.
Just take your pick but they're all the same,
these things that your telling me, can really show me
how you feel.
I'm breaking down
I'm falling down.
Now I'm breathing.
And Now i'm scared to move.
Don't listen to a word I tell you.
Just take me by my hand (I swear I'll make this up to you)

So now you want me to fix everthing,
But baby there's so much and so little time to.
replace the things i've broken, ripped apart and thrown
away,
You can say that you don't miss me, I think about you everyday.

Oh come on girl,
So much to say,
So instead of kidding everybody, how bout you try your tricks on me
On me.

So now you want me to fix everthing,
But baby there's so much and so little time to.
replace the things i've broken, ripped apart and thrown
away,
You can say that you don't miss me, I think about you
everyday.

Oh, oh do you know how feels to see your face when i close my eyes.
Bet you know,
How it feels to be the only thing that matters. Now

So now you want me to fix everthing,
But baby there's so much and so little time to.

replace the things i've broken, ripped apart and thrown
away,
You can say that you don't miss me, I think about you
everyday.

So now you want me to fix everthing,(oh do you know)
But baby there's so much and so little time to.(how it feels to see your face when i close my eyes)
replace the things i've broken, ripped apart and thrown away, (Oh bet you know how it feels)
You can say that you don't miss me, I think about you everyday. (to be the only thing that matters
