I know your face, your eyes, your lips, your taste
I love the way you know just what to say

It was a Saturday, remember it like yesterday
She knew my name, imagine that I know this road, the way that no one goes
So cold, so cold, baby you're so cold, so cold

Take it easy, baby we can make it right
Girl, you know my love is always on your side
Rest your eyes tonight
You know that my love, you know that my love is on your side

I love your pretty face, how it rests on your pillowcase
We get in fights, you spend the night
And I don't see how we get this way, but I think we're alright

Take it easy, baby we can make it right
Girl, you know my love is always on your side
Rest your eyes tonight
your side

Take it easy, baby we can make it right
Girl, you know my love is always on your side
Rest your eyes tonight, rest your eyes tonight
Rest your eyes tonight

You know that my love, (my love is on your side)
You know that my love, (my love is on your side)
You know that my love, (my love is on your side)
My love is on your side
