She never knows when its raining, she only knows when it's cold
She's always saying how she hates it, how her story sounds so old
She packed her clothes in her suitcase, then put that case in her car
She says she's gotta get so far gone, oh so far gone
That she don't even care how far

Where did you go when you knew you didn't know me?
And you never wanted to figure me out,
I didn't know, I never even saw it coming
I'll wait all my life

So come back to the east coast baby,
We'll figure out a way to make this work
My chest is feeling empty, always, and you're it's only cure

You know that I try so hard, I try so hard
And nothing seems to ever work
It's like I'm running and I cannot stop, I cannot stop
Oh you just love to make this hurt

Where did you go when you knew you didn't know me?
And you never wanted to figure me out
I didn't know, I never even saw it coming
I'll wait all my life, if you give me some time

She's all alone now, she can't find her own way out Where I am, the sun's down, and She's caught up in her new west coast town

She's all alone now, finding her way out, California let me down
She traded me for living the good life, staying up all night
Darling, can you hear me now?

Where did you go when you knew you didn't know me?
And you never wanted to figure me out

I didn't know, I never even saw it coming
I'll wait all my life

Where did you go?
I didn't know, I didn't know, I never even saw it coming
I waited all my life, if you give me some time

Give me, give me, give give me some time
Give me, give me, give give me some time
Give me, give me, give give me some time
If you give me some time
