

Rocking Horse Winner, The "When Songbirds Sing"

Visit "When Songbirds Sing" on MotoLyrics.com from sea to sea a bridge lies between you and me walk across this route in harmony when songbirds sing

deep blue sky in my dream i could almost fly but i dont even have to try
when songbirds sing

when my world caves in i'll find peace within
hearing your voice again

and the lights go dim
brings comfort to me

a comfort so soothing to me as soothing as this melody

evening tide wash away all these deep blue nights happiness won't seem to pass you by when songbirds are singing

hearing you voice again
