"So You Wanted To See The Wizard"

So you wanted to meet the wizard
Let me tell you that you've come to the right place
Shall I make you a frog or a lizard?
You should see the strained expression on your face

If the way I come on is frightening
That's the way I felt like coming on today
Have you ever been kissed by lightning?
Let me tell you, that will make you go away
I fly

And the magic of my power takes me higher
To a level where the clouds turn into fire
In the warmness of the fire I feel fine
Just keep your eyes open and the magic you will see

It will whistle on the wind as it emanates from me
It's a strong and true vibration
You can feel it on your skin
So come and take my hand and we will dance upon the wind
Ahh
