I'm tired of arguing and fighting girl
Every night you keep calling me with the same shit
I'm going insane
I swear I love but this ain't right for us
I never thought it would end this way
Its gonna kill me to say but you gotta

Pack your stuff leave my keys,
Get your shit, gotta go.
Pack your stuff leave my keys,
Get your shit, gotta go.
Pack your stuff leave my keys,
Get your shit, gotta go.
I've told you that I'm moving on
You did it where, you had to know.

To how to shape and mold you i admit was my mission
But everything went wrong dear
'cause you started acting different
The day you ran up on me I was smokin chillin, swore you was tryin to roll aint know what was so appealin'
Fast forward, I'm on the road
You at home calling me back forth
Can't deal with this relationship
But this what you asked for ask for them pictures of them b*tches, shit
I probably wouldn't be with them
If your ass wasn't trippin'
Not to mention you're acting like a kid
Is the f*ck shit I gotta deal with send a text, leave me a message try not to listen Bring the rap you was the main player I had to bench
you
When I showed your ass how to ball that Louie I bought it all.

Chorus:

I'm tired of arguing and fighting girl
Every night you keep calling me with the same shit

I'm going insane

I swear I love but this ain't right for us
I never thought it would end this way
Its gonna kill me to say but you gotta

Pack your stuff leave my keys,
Get your shit, gotta go.
Pack your stuff leave my keys,
Get your shit, gotta go.
Pack your stuff leave my keys,
Get your shit, gotta go.
I've told you that I'm moving on
You did it where, you had to know.

Gone on the road that I'm hardly home on the weekend
You be blowing my phone up tryin to see who I'm seeing
But I'm chasing this paper so for this paper I'm reaching might f*ck one or two b*tches but don't consider it cheatin
I consider the fact that we'll break up anyway, anyway
Based on all that shit you don't appreciate
Me switching states, working hard, meetin dates,
You were thinking everything was sweet piece of cake
Well that all changed, what we had was big but you're gonna miss the small things and that little cash I spent that was small change but above all things i still love you just gotta do my own thing.

[Chorus:]

I'll go, I'll never come back
Now when you call.. I never call back
'cause I got a new girl, yeah I got a new girl
Everything was all good, .. then went all bad
And no I don't think about the times that we had
'cause I got a new girl, yeah I got a new girl.

Ooh Ooh Ooh Ooh Oh (x8)
