"Never too late, too late to start start, never too late,
too late to start start"

I'm tryna have the wrist all bladed up with all kitted up
Niggas say damn change, wiz couldn't give a fuck
Spit it like my last song, one life live it up Niggas see damn's change, kids couldn't get a buck
So please don't approach me man
Like this a free show, cause you don't know me me fam
And please don't extend your hands like you know we fam
And please don't pretend like we only scam
Where was all this love at when I was only can?
When I was tryna sell y'all my only jam?
I don't keep friends, I'm my only fan
And take falls, I'll never, I will only stand Ima make this all riches, is what I totally did
If you don't know me now, then how you know me then?
And I hope y'all loving the kid, but if not, its

"Never too late, too late to start start, never too late,
too late to start start"

Im tryna have the strip all whipped out
Crib all pimped out
Chicks smiling in my face, tongues all licked out
Flat on the front side, back all sticking out
Waiting for that one time, a rap nigga did it out
But you gone have to slow up love
Tryna skee cause she think ima blow up cuz
All she thinking me getting her nails done, and her hair done
Ma i'm not the one
Ion need no chick plotting all my tricks

no birds tryna fly with me on my trips,
If I am with a Miss, she a down ass chick,
So take a sec, just chill and get off my tip
I'm just tryna get rich of these tracks I get
And you tryna get rich off the scratch I get
And you chicks think it's all about bread, but it's not, its..

"Never too late, too late to start start"

"Cause I wan't to tell you, that there's no point in hating anybody, because to the extent that you tear down another, you tear down yourself (yea, yea), we have done the same s--"

I'm tryna have the city on lockdown

Fam off the block now

Money coming fast, more cash then the cops now

Would harass, but they can't really not now

Used to laugh, but your man's really hot now

I used to rap for the kids in class

Told em I would use rap just to get my cash

And I was on the word about how to get my math

And told my teachers and the staff they can kiss my ass

Cause I can't a interest in my book

So I stayed to myself and every class I took

Supposed to be doing work, but I made my hooks

Cause I get motivation everywhere I look

And I show no regret for any chance I took

But I learn from mistakes just like I should

So if you dudes aint payed your dues, for you fools its..

"Never too late, too late too start start, never too late,
too late to start start"
