Standing in the first line
Waiting for the sign
Lusting for blood and death again.
They are immortal
They live to fight and to kill

A brotherhood of warriors
Blessed by the church
They live and die by their own laws.
Kill like you want
But never, never eat human flesh.

[Ref:]
... of wariwulfs and bluotvarwes
Of bletzer and black vargrs
Tales of violence we will sing
Nightmares we will bring

There is no 8th death sin
But for a wariwulf
Avoid this incredible deed.
Inexcusable.
He' ll feel the power of their law.

If he made this mistake
A hagre will lead him
From live to eternal pain.
An undead for all time
Than Bletzer is his name
