I was just sitting there
Dime in hand
I will be the one
And it's so easy darling
Please take off and I'll be safe
He's all alone outside
And if you try too hard then you got to let go
I had it all worked out
And in the end I'll still be alone

In your eyes
And it is no big surprise
Safe here by your side, open up the eeeeeEEEEeee

I wanted all of this
And in the end I'll still be alone
Atop your hills your face
Pass me down, the look in your eyes
And in this big (thing?)
You'll be changing just for me
Your screaming says that I'm
The one in looking out (yours?)
