They love you or they hate you but they will never let you be.
They thrill you or sedate you but they will never let you see.

In the evening sun. In the evening sun.

Encourage and deranged you. Watch you walking scared alone.
Despite intimidation... Pleased to watch you dance alone.

In the evening sun. In the evening sun.

Go your separate way now. Someday you'll come back and I'll be dreaming I was sunburnt.
I don't want to break your heart in. And break your heart in two halves.
Keep one half and give one half to me. I like the sum-miss the summer.
Tell me, what'd you do? Nothing? Me too...

Actors they're pretending and singers they will sometimes lie.
Oh kids are always honest, 'cause they don't think they're ever gonna die.
You're the prettiest smartest captain of the team.0
I love you more than being seventeen.

In the evening sun. In the evening sun. In the evening sun.
