Animals on TV singing about something that they once felt

There's no one I disapprove of more or root for more than myself

I wanted to pretend that it was better, better, better on the phone

I didn't wanna tell you I was jealous, jealous, jealous and alone

So we talk about ourselves and how To forget the love we never felt Oh, we owed jokes that work so well
You never were so sure, was the moment

Don't try to stop us
Don't try to stop us
Don't try to stop us
Get out of the way

Got to get to climb your tree in the light of the living ghost I see
She sees her father in the old man's eyes while secretly he stares at her thighs Animals on TV singing about something they felt at some point
I wanted to tell you it was better, better, better, but what's the point?

As I watched the bell with drapes appear
And I don't withclose for forty years
'cause we hide what we don't wanna hear
As we hide what's real, hear, hear

He is coming from a part of hell Where like Nanbu I don't go down well
He can't tell that when oblivion
It's a ditch strung out, routine as well

Making fools out of the best of us Making robots of the rest of us
In that sense I tell in America today

There's a crack, just like going out westward

Don't try to stop us

Don't try to stop us

Don't try to stop me

Get out of the way
