Strokes, The
"Take It Or Leave It"

leave me alone

i'm in control

and girls lie too much and boys act too tough

enough is enough

well, on the minds of other men i know she was i said just take it or leave it

and take it or leave it

oh, just take it or leave it

oh, take it

i say

oh, he's gonna let you down

he's gonna let you down

and gonna break your back for a chance

and gonna steal your friends if he can

he's gonna win someday

i fell off the track

now i can't go back

i'm not like that boys lie too much

girls act too tough

well, on the minds of other girls i know he was i said you take it or leave it

that's right

oh, he will
