I'm sitting alone by my window at home see the sun shining bright but I can't get no light oh it hurts me so strong, tell me why things went wrong tell me why must this be, why did this happen to me ooh ooh

I know that you're dead but I won't realize I know you were fat, you were all oversized You've been mean all the time, so I had to kill you after that I felt fine but now I'm missing you ah uh please tell me

What else can I do - just waiting for you make my dreams all come true - I'm waiting for you

I know that you're dead...

Will she ever come back, six feet under she lies Can she dig herself out, can she find her way home to me...

What else can I do... Shanananana - waiting for you
