"Cloud in The Sky"

Take my vision away
Take the words that I say
Take yourself from me
Can't take what I believe

There's a cloud in the sky
But I ain't gonna cry
Take the sun from my eyes
I feel the Feel the warmth of it rise

I feel the warmth of it rise
Feel the warmth of it rise
Feel the warmth of it rise
Feel the warmth of it rise

Let the rain fall down
'Cause I ain't gonna drown
Scratch my face in the sand
I'm a determined woman

There's a cloud in the sky
But I ain't gonna cry
Take the sun from my eyes
I feel the warmth of it rise

Feel the warmth of it rise
Feel the warmth of it rise
Feel the warmth of it rise
Feel the warmth of it rise
