Too late
They hate
Too late
They hate

You've jaded
They've faded
From your heart
They've ripped it all apart
Our worlds collide

Inside our souls collapsing
In their thoughtless ways
Our hearts collide

They're correcting
They correct my heart
They're rejecting
They reject our hearts

Now we are all stoned
They've ripped it all apart
Collapse
Collide
Our hearts collide

They're correcting
They correct my heart
They're rejecting
They reject our hearts

Now we are all stoned
They've ripped it all apart
Collapse
Collide
Our hearts collide
