(verse 1)

oh Babygurl, when i first saw you we both knew itz too good to be true and i think about the life we could have together oh our love will last for ever.... and i try my best to keep you in my life but why try when i know your not by my side i do it for the fact that i love you and lovin you ohh gurl is all dat i can do...

(bridge)2x

oh gurl im tryin my best to feel your love deep inside wherez your heart in my chest gurl but i will know that it be alright

(chorus)2x

cuz babygurl, you are my, everything i never had see your eyes, hold you tight, kiss you when i know your sad the first time, in my mind, dream of you is all i do you made me so in love with you, oh boo

(Verse 2)

babygurl imagine if all our dreamz came alive and all our fantansies wern't never meant to be a lie oh itz so hard to believe babez cuz we're both reminiscing still for just that one day laying down, holdin on to your telephone just hoping to hear my voice when i come home itz worth waitin cuz you know what i always do call you up babez and always say "i love you"...

(bridge)2x
