Where are you when you're not on the line?
I know I can call, I know what I'll find You're sitting at home
Doing nothing at all
Yeah, I feel like I'm going to fall Away.....
(yeah and what does it all mean...)
Because here I am just an existential guy flying high and wham look what this does to my eyes they're closed (yeah, they're so closed) you say you want your mix tape your bangle bracelet too well all I say is that this is phone rape I think I've paid my dues you even missed sam's birthday bash you promised me these plans forever you must have a secret stash of excuses (all so clever) well what do you do when I get the ax?
will you run when you see the cleaver?
concealed in my jacket.... my cyanide dripping into your ear
I have to kill you for cancelling plans this late....
