Wake up child don't be afraid I'll be here every night and all day don't look sad ain't nothing you can do you're born unto me a part of you I.O.U. you're what I got I own you that counts for a lot listen child don't you know til your old enough what I say is so night has come so be brave mommie's asleep now it's time to play here in our home we call our home with all you sick freely roam who force themselves upon their own can you deny it's going on don't you cry you've done nothing wrong just keep daddy smiling it's the way things are done it's alright we've done this before now turn of the lights and close the door now child who are you gonna tell it's our little secret we'll take straight to hell and you can't deny me not if you love me I've done so much for you it's your turn to give me time to give me
