I'm born down in the dirt, born with mud in my eyes
Born kicked in the teeth born a loser in life
So put me on the pedestal so everyone can see
And listen to the gospel of the living mockery.

Yeah...

I will be, Yes sanctified!

I'm negatively spent every single day
A tortured beaten soul in every single way
I'm such a goddamned fool for living the way i do
But i play the hand I'm given, not the hand i choose

Yeah...

I will be, Yes sanctified!

Sanctified!

Bring me down as a holy man
And bring down again as a holy man.
And bring me down again as a holy man
Like a holy man

Now I'm the hero of masses, king of the world
A disciple to conviction it's obvious yet absurd
How someone's way of living can become converse
From pauper to prince, a blessing to a curse.

Yeah! I will be yeah sanctified!

I will be yes sanctified,

Sanctified

I will be,

Justified
