She is my drug
She is my vein
She is my life
She is my pain
She is my wheat
She is my grain

I can abstain
Though I know
It's so plain
She is my cain

Upon the night
I see her eyes
Her tears are my skies
Her heart beats my life

I can't refrain
Though I know
It's so plain
She is my cain

She is my night
She is my day
She is my sun
She is my rain

I can't complain
Cause I know
She's my bane
She is my bane
