There's something burning deep down in me

For some release inside

There's nowhere baby

Nowhere to take me

To try and change my mind

All I'm asking from you is to watch my side

And keep me under one hundred and ninety-five

I'm so reckless and wild

I'm so reckless and wild

Just stay with me, please stay with me

I'm not afraid to cry

This world keeps turning and I'm still learning

Though I might seem like a child

A new day is coming and I'm not afraid

Of the light

So sit back darlin', I'm bound to do

Something right
